Traffic Crush On Campbell Avenue Jammed By Busses Now Loading There

Mounting concern over use of Campbell Avenue for loading and unloading of Peerless Stages passengers has been expressed by both the Campbell Legion Patrol and shoppers in the business district. Crux of the irritation is the almost total road block which exists when two of the busses arrive at once, since incoming and outgoing busses load on opposite sides of the street.

Since no loading zones have been authorized, the busses double-park inside the traffic lanes. Under the recently adopted parking ordinance for unincorporated areas of the county, the stage company was allotted adequate loading area on Central Avenue, just off Campbell Avenue. At that time their agency, the Blue Bell Cafe, was located just across the way on Campbell Avenue. When the cafe moved to its new location farther up Campbell Avenue, the busses followed, but this time moved directly onto the avenue.

Peerless Stages manager R. M. Bartholdi in San Jose, told the Campbell Press his company had notified the County Board of Supervisors "a month before the agency opened that we were going to unload on Campbell Avenue." He said he had made a verbal request to the board for establishment of loading zones, and "I believe our agent has made formal application." He said he had asked Supervisor Joseph McKinnon to look into the situation, but whether he has or not "is another story." Bartholdi added that as far as unloading in the middle of the business district goes, "it's good business for the merchants as well as convenient for the bus passengers. They love it out there. It brings the people right into the shopping area."

A check with Board of Supervisors Clerk Richard Olson revealed that the board has granted no permission for the loading zone change. County Counsel Howard Campen, who drew up the original parking ordinance, said he had received no request. "There would have to be an amendment to the parking ordinance," he stated. "If the ordinance is to mean anything, application should be made to the board for such an amendment." Whether or not the merchants "love it," is questionable, for some have already found customers avoiding the Campbell Avenue crush. In addition, they state that use of the street for unloading, crowds available parking facilities on the main street for their customers. Should loading zones be granted on either side of the avenue, this, too, would reduce the parking area available to their customers.

San Tomas School Recreation Program Features Varied Activities For All Age Groups; More Adult Help Needed

Summer recreation program at San Tomas School is now in progress under the supervision of Miss Margaret Enos. A complete program has been outlined to provide interest for both lower and upper grade children.

KIWANIS VIEWS OLD SETTLERS' DAY FILMS

Colored pictures of Old Settlers' Day this year were shown to the Campbell Kiwanis Club Tuesday as a fill-in program. Many familiar scenes and people passed in review and will be enjoyed in years to come. The annual February celebration is a grand old institution to Campbell and almost as old as the town.

Mark Purmort received an attendance award for 19 years of perfect attendance at Kiwanis meetings, and D. L. "Red" Beltz was officially inducted into the club, with Laurence J. Hill and Guy Farley charged with the latter, and Ira H. Grim with the former.

Visitors were Cliff Anderson of San Jose, and J. Larsen, representative of Western Auto company.

Next week Clarence Nelson will have charge of the program.

Levenberg Praises Results Of Recent Blood Bank Visit

"It's a pleasure to return from a vacation"—that doesn't sound exactly correct but that's the way the chairman of the Campbell Blood Bank, Budd Levenberg, felt when he returned from Yosemite and read in the Campbell Press the results of the recent visit of the mobile unit of the Blood Bank on June 26.

"It was all due, of course, to the splendid work of Mrs. Ellen Lamphar and Mrs. N. J. Mahon and their committee, who phoned, talked and, I believe, went out on the street and waylaid people to donate a pint of blood," Levenberg commented. "A grand job for a grand cause. My sincere thanks to all who gave and to all of the committee who made it possible."

Levenberg issued an invitation to other blood donors saying the next visit is due soon. "Can you help?"

School Board Prompts Building

In an effort to quicken action on the proposed $1,962,000 building project for Campbell Union Elementary School District, the district school board at a meeting last night decided to send letters to the Governor's office at Sacramento and the State Department of Finance.

The board at present is waiting for a decision on allocations that will finance the project. The building program already has the approval of the State Department of Education. In its present form, the program includes erection of five new schools and additions to the existing three schools of the district.

Committee For Service Fund Budget To Meet

Work on the budget for the coming Community Service drive in the early fall, will get underway at the first meeting of the budget committee Tuesday night at the home of the committee chairman, Mrs. Harold Drummond.

All except two of the group budgets have been submitted to the committee, and these two are expected to be on hand by Tuesday evening. Benefiting groups whose budgets will be reviewed Tuesday in board efforts to arrive at an overall figure for the year, will be those of the Visiting Nurse Association, library fund (submitted by the Country Woman's Club as trustees of the building), three milk tunds — Moreland School, Cambrian School and Campbell Grammar School district, the latter including the three district schools, Moorpark, San Tomas and Campbell Elementary schools; Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and YMCA.

Prior to the meeting, each member will have an opportunity to individually review the requests and to form his own opinion. The committee, at its session, will then discuss the various budgets and arrive at the final figure which will be submitted as a recommendation to the Community Service Council. This recommendation, plus findings of the committee on the various requests, will be reviewed by the council at a general meeting, probably to be held on the following week. Representatives of each benefiting agency will be urged to attend the general meeting to discuss with the members the organizations' requests.

Budget committee members are Mrs. Drummond, chairman; Mrs. Ruby McKee, Mrs. Betty Youngman, secretary-treasurer of the council, Mr. Donald Lukehart and Mr. C. T. Mitchell.

Mrs. J. W. Knowles is the council president.

Club Committees For Year Named At Rotary Assembly

New Rotary president William Maderis presided at his first meeting Monday since taking over the office last week from former president Forrest Reese. Instead of its regular noon meeting, the Campbell Rotary Club held a club assembly Monday evening, at which committee assignments for the year were made.

A club membership report revealed that the group had a membership of 20 on July, 1949. Since then, seven new members have been added; three members have been lost, two by resignation and one by death.

Dobie Jeffers reported that the sign for the Rotary Club and other civic organizations in the town had been completed and is ready for installation at the intersection of Campbell Avenue and San Jose-Los Gatos Road when permission can be obtained. A similar sign has been erected at the Campbell Avenue-Winchester Road intersection.

Members are working on details of plans for a Junior Rotarian program. Other subjects of interest were discussed, including the financial report which showed the club to be in better condition than at any time in its history.

Maderis and Reese, now secretary of the club, attended the district assembly today in Santa Rosa. The two have also been invited to a barbecue party to be given by San Jose Rotary Club.

Mrs. Hawkins, a teacher at Moorpark, is moving to Redding. Her husband, also a teacher, has accepted a position there for next year.

San Jose Lops Off Another Section Of Campbell P. O.

Editorial

Everyone who lives in Campbell but has a San Jose phone exchange, stand over on this side—you may as well consider yourselves a part of the City of San Jose. Everyone who shops in San Jose can join the group, too. You're part of San Jose. Of course if you shop in San Francisco, or Palo Alto or Mountain View or Campbell, you may end up with a split personality.

Sounds a little far-fetched, doesn't it? But that appears to be the logic behind the gradual loss of Campbell Postoffice district to San Jose. It is not so much the loss of postoffice district which concerns us here, as its implications. San Jose postoffice boundaries are inside Campbell now. When the time comes to set up another annexation deal whereby the city of San Jose will seek another portion of juicy revenue on its boundaries, how better to determine the outlines of such new territory than by the ever-growing outlines of the San Jose postoffice district?

The postoffice spokesman in San Jose said, "We aren't taking in Leigh Avenue or Dry Creek Road at present." How long is "at present"?

That's a good system, perhaps we're in for the $64 prize for mentioning it, but Mr. Stalin thought of it first. Russians live in Latvia, Estonia or Eritrea, therefore those countries are within the Soviet zone of influence, therefore those countries are really part of Russia.

San Jose working people live in Campbell, therefore this community is within the San Jose zone of influence, therefore Campbell is part of San Jose.

It's a good idea. Let's all try it. Campbell people shop in San Jose, therefore San Jose is within the Campbell zone of influence, therefore San Jose is a part of Campbell. Let's annex it. Ah, but we can't. Campbell's too small; we have no actual town limits, just a township limit; we have nothing to fight with, nobody to speak for us, no plans, no future.

No plans for ourselves, that is: no future as an individual community.

We quote a speaker at a recent Kiwanis meeting who said: At this moment San Jose and Santa Clara are drawing a dividing line down the center of Campbell, to decide which town gets which half.

San Jose and Santa Clara are building tremendous industrial centers on their boundaries. Someone has to stand the tremendous bonded indebtedness which results from the complicated services and installations necessitated by these new industries. Yes, industries bring more employment, more income, but someone has to stand the meal ticket. Who but the quiet, defenseless residential communities which San Jose has termed its bedrooms?

The "At Present" is very soon.

LOCAL SCOUTS VISIT POINTS OF INTEREST ON THREE-WEEK JAMBOREE TREK; HOME MONDAY

Gilbert Johnson and Ned Gault, youthful Campbell Boy Scouts, are on the final leg of a three-week train tour, augmenting the Second National Boy Scout Jamboree, held at Valley Forge, Pa., earlier this month.

The lads are a part of a 19-scout contingent representing the Santa Clara County Council. Approximately 300 Scouts and leaders from the Bay area left June 23, on a special Boy Scout train that chauffeured the scouts eastward.

The business portion of the excursion took place at the week-long jamboree where troops from every state set up camp afire and demonstrated to highly critical authorities their coveted scouting lore.

During the stay at Valley Forge all meals were cooked and prepared by the scouts and served outdoors in typical woodsman environment. Special activities and demonstrations were the keynotes of heated competition for organizational recognition and resulting awards.

Following the Jamboree, Ned, Gilbert and Company entrained for a tour of the eastern states and their individual rural and urban wonders. New York, per usual, drew much comment, not to mention the three major league baseball games included in the itinerary.

Another section of Campbell Postoffice territory will be annexed to the San Jose postoffice district effective August 1. This will involve some 25 to 50 homes in the territory bounded by Leigh Avenue, Dry Creek Road, Meridian Road and Hamilton Avenue.

San Jose Postmaster Joseph Chargin Jr. announced this week that his office is working with Campbell Postmaster Ira H. Grim on the annexation of the area. His office said problems include renumbering, assignment of numbers to homes on new streets, scheming of delivery routes and actual transfer of the section from Campbell to San Jose. The delivery will change from a Campbell rural route system to San Jose mounted carrier and foot delivery.

Grim told the Campbell Press this morning he had requested the changeover because the section "is territory which is developing very rapidly and the Campbell Postoffice is getting no revenue out of it." He said the residents work in San Jose and shop in San Jose, doing little or no business with Campbell Postoffice; therefore, he has requested the Postoffice Department to give the territory to San Jose. Grim estimated present number of homes as 25, while the San Jose spokesman gave a higher figure of "about 100."

"This makes our office have a much better showing. It costs the Campbell postoffice to serve those people and it receives nothing in return," said Grim. Territory to be annexed is bounded by Hamilton Avenue up to but not including Leigh Avenue, those streets off Hamilton Avenue to Leigh; from Leigh up to but not including Dry Creek Road; from Dry Creek Road to Meridian Road to the present limit at Willowhurst.

The San Jose postoffice spokesman commented, "We are not taking in either Dry Creek Road or Leigh Avenue at present." Grim said he and the San Jose office had decided that Leigh Avenue will be the north and south boundary line between the two offices. Residents in the area may avoid delay in receiving mail after August 1 if they notify correspondents ahead of time that the addresses will be changed.

Under the San Jose Postoffice, the Hamilton-Norman Avenue section will be served by postmen afoot, while mounted delivery service will be provided by the Campbell Avenue-Meridian Road-McBain Avenue sector. Closest branch of the San Jose postoffice is the Lincoln Avenue station in Willow Glen.

Asked for the reason behind the annexation, Chargin's office said residents had petitioned for San Jose delivery service. "They work in San Jose, they have San Jose phones, and they believe they belong to San Jose more than to Campbell."

On the annexation method, the spokesman said petitions or requests for change of service are turned over to an inspector by the main office in Washington, D.C. After a survey of the area, the inspector makes recommendations on which final action from Washington is based. In this case an inspector from the San Jose office was assigned.

Early this year Grace Street in the Hamilton Avenue section was annexed to the San Jose Postoffice section. Last year, San Jose took in Thornton and Empey Way between Downing Avenue and Maywood, off San Jose-Los Gatos Road. Some years ago, the Meridian Road to Hurst Street section was lost to San Jose.

Announcements of future events included a rummage sale scheduled for July 25 and 26. There will be an excess plant sale at the next meeting. Degree work will be conducted at the second meeting in August.

Arrangements are being made for a caravan of cars to go to the Roach Grange in Santa Cruz County Monday night, July 24. Next Pomona Grange meeting will be held at the Mt. Hamilton Grange Saturday, August 5. J. C. Gordon, master, reported that the Pomona Grange is busy working on the water problem. Farmers have found it necessary to deepen their wells to such an extent that it is imperative that all water users economize on water use as far as possible. Gordon advised that users should avoid using excess water on their lawns. The Grange passed a resolution that the water situation is desperate.

Orchard Grange will have a ham dinner on the second Tuesday in November, and arrangements are being made for a November card party.

An award was presented to Norman A. Weitzel, Campbell High School Future Farmer, for winning a national essay contest on soil conservation, wild life and its future.

Refreshment committee members were Clarabel Vining, Malissa Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Gardner.

Rummage Sale Set For Next Week

The annual rummage sale sponsored by the Job's Daughters will be held Friday and Saturday, July 21 and 22, at the IOOF Hall. The sale will start at 9:00 a.m. and run through the day until 5:00 p.m.

Anyone wishing to donate rummage may leave it at 240 South Winchester or call Campbell 2154 or 3354 for pickup service, according to Mrs. Leland Jones, chairman.

Daily Attendance Increase In Elementary Dist.

Average daily attendance in the Campbell Union Elementary School District has increased almost 300 over the 1948-49 year, William C. Henley, district superintendent, reported today.

ADA for the 1949-50 year was 2292 as compared to 2000 for the previous year. Enrollment last year was about 2400.

Henley said the district is anticipating an ADA increase of 300 next year with a possible enrollment of 2800 pupils.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON

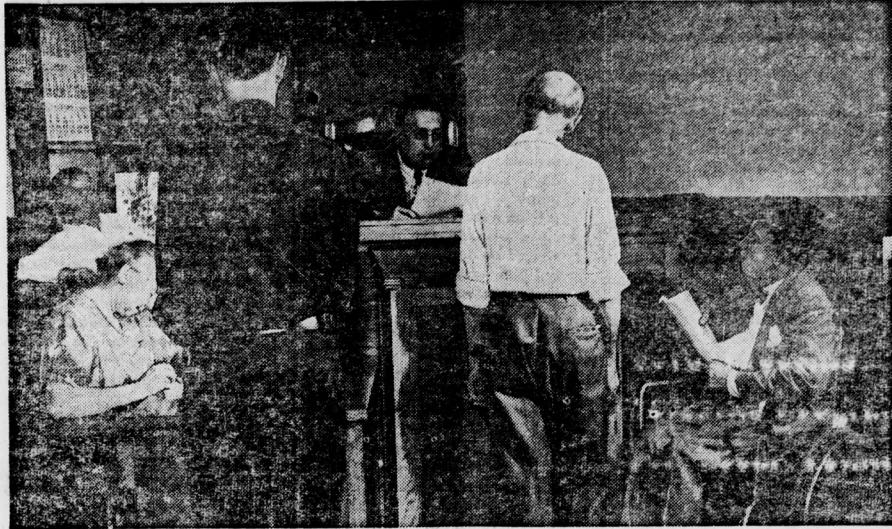

"Life" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, July 16, with the Golden Text taken from Psalms: "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" (27:1).

The sermon will be comprised of citations chosen from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following:

Colossians 3:2-4: "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory."

Science and Health: "When spiritual being is understood in all its perfection, continuity, and might, then shall man be found in God's image. The absolute meaning of the apostolic words is this: 'Then shall man be found, in His likeness, perfect as the Father, indestructible in Life, hid with Christ in God,'—with Truth in divine Love, where human sense hath not seen man." (p. 325).

VETS' FOUNDATION FIGHTS FUTILITY

Gifford S. Moss (right), executive secretary of the National Paraplegia foundation, is assistant state's attorney for Du Page county, Ill. He maintains a full court schedule. Here he prosecutes a case before Judge R. W. Keeney in the county court, Wheaton. Moss' wheel chair is collapsible for easy loading into his automobile.

MUCH PUBLIC attention has been focused on the plight of veterans paralyzed as a result of injury or sickness growing out of the war. Every informed person has read or heard about the vocational and social rehabilitation work done by the federal government on behalf of paralyzed veterans.

But the spotlight of publicity should go deeper. The veteran does not want sympathy as he adjusts himself to routine life in our communities. He does hope that out of his personal tragedy will come a public awareness of a disaster that does not confine itself to war casualties.

Lay members of the National Paraplegia foundation have been shocked to learn that every day three people arise from bed and move about freely the last time on this earth. For, before the day is over, those three will have been injured or attacked by a disease that may prevent them from walking for the rest of their natural lives. At the present moment, there is little that can be done for these individuals. After the first acute phases are over, hospitals do not give them custodial care. There is little effort to make their lot happier or easier to bear.

The medical advisory board of the foundation is deeply concerned with the lack of research into the physiological and bacteriological aspects of paraplegia. Lack of understanding hampers even the work done in the relatively fine facilities of the Veterans' Administration. It brings to a complete standstill the average doctor faced with a case of civilian paraplegia.

To make sure that today's utter frustration and sense of futility will not have to be faced by tomorrow's paralyzed person, the paralyzed veterans of America have organized the National Paraplegia foundation.

WHEN YOU PLACE a frozen dessert in the freezing tray of your refrigerator, line the tray with heavy waxed paper before pouring in the dessert mixture. Then the dessert is easy to remove and slice, come serving time.

Prepare salad vegetables for readiness to serve as soon as they come in from the garden or market. Wash them thoroughly under cold, running water, with a spray attachment, for easy cleaning. Let them drain on a cake rack, then store in refrigerator. You can make salads in double quick time this way on hot days, simply by tossing them together with salad dressing.

Select foods which can be cooked for hot and sweltering days like ham slice, lamb chops, hamburgers, cubed steaks and fish fillets. A good way to prepare ham slice is to spread it with prepared mustard, and over that spread a paste of brown sugar moistened with pineapple juice.

While you do last minute dinner preparations, let the family relax

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

- 1½ cups diced, cooked ham
- 1½ cups diced, cooked sweet potatoes
- 1 cup diced celery

- Mayonnaise to moisten

Combine all ingredients. Toss lightly with just enough mayonnaise to moisten. Chill thoroughly, then serve in large lettuce cups.

on porch or garden with chilled fruit or tomato juice and munch on potato chips.

Cold meat and fruit combinations make delicious entrees to serve for dinner on a hot night. What about trying large chunks of ham with pineapple chunks, grape halves and lemon juice-thinned mayonnaise?

With cold veal loaf, there's nothing more refreshing than black and red cherries, banana chunks dipped in lemon juice, and some fresh apricot halves.

Saratoga Group Makes Bid For Subdivision Trade

El Quito Park subdivision and other coming residential sections in the area on Saratoga Avenue and Quito Road have been drawing much of the Saratoga merchants' interest these days.

During the past two weeks two meetings have been held by the businessmen in the town to discover means whereby the many new residents in the subdivisions, expected to reach 2,500 on completion, can be persuaded to make Saratoga their shopping center.

At a meeting of the group Monday night, under auspices of the Saratoga Chamber of Commerce, the merchants formulated plans, and showed interest in what the Campbell merchants may be doing to attract business from the district which lies half way between the two communities.

Saratoga merchants have named three of their members to a committee to prepare a directory listing points of interest, churches, schools, local state and national representatives, and all businesses in the Saratoga area. The directory will be printed and copies will be presented each new family.

Merchants have asked whether Campbell will follow suit, advertise its Thursday night openings and make a bid for trade from the large subdivisions.

American Legion Radio Network Maintains Capable Emergency Service

One of the least recognized yet most vital organizations to many persons is the American Legion Radio Network.

Composed of about 60 California amateur radio operators, the network, operating on its own assigned frequency, aids many social, charitable and law enforcing agencies in their respective fields.

Head of this Legion network is John F. Meikle of Campbell, who was elected president in March of this year as the group reorganized at a convention in Visalia.

The specific purpose of the network is to administer aid and beneficial action by notifying proper authorities in times of emergency such as floods, crimes, accidents, fires, and snow-bound cases, whenever telephones aren't available or when the power fails. Operators stationed in their homes throughout the state keep in constant touch with each other by nightly check-ins with a central station.

Standard check-in hour is from 8 to 9 p.m. with the operators answering roll call.

There are four main divisions in the state, with the entire system serving as an outlet for the Transcontinental Phone Network.

When an emergency arises and no other aid can be administered immediately, the ALRN frequently carries the ball.

An outstanding example of the network's efficiency is illustrated in the following case. A "ham" up in Ruth, Calif., noticed a kidnaper making off with his victim, a teen-aged girl, last January. Being situated high in the rugged countryside of that northern California town, his radio was the only media of communication. By relaying the information concerning the culprit's location and description, the authorities were able to capture the rogue in short order.

Augmenting their thorough work, the network has a crew of mobile radio cars equipped with two-way sets. These sets are capable of sending emergency signals and messages into fixed radio stations, home receivers and car radios.

Incidentally, the winner of the paper-making contest was awarded not one, but five bottles of coke.

Many boys, showing amazing insight and business qualifications, set up personal, one-man enterprises. One lad instigated a shoe-shining parlor with top rate being 10 cents per shine. A future fourth to the trio of Hart, Schaffner and Marx was found at his tailor shop in the corner of a car. The clever lad was charging a few pennies to sew on newly-awarded insignias, chevrons and badges.

As these personal corporations functioned successfully, the train continued its rolling ways.

On the over-all agenda of sights not to be missed was the ever-present Niagara Falls plus the intriguing automobile assembly-line at Ford Motor Co. in Detroit.

With the wind in their favor, the migrating clan stopped at Chicago allowing the lads to see the stockyards, a ball game, and the famous lakeshore drive.

This weekend marks the final days of a memorable jaunt. Over the weekend the tour is visiting the great northwest, stopping at Seattle and Portland for appropriate pleasure treks.

Train 15 is scheduled to chug into Ferry Building depot early Monday morning and evict its tenants of 26 days.

"Lost" Classified Finds Earring

Want ads in the Campbell Press pay off, Mrs. Kathleen Bergeron, Campbell music teacher, told the Press this afternoon.

Recently she lost a favorite earring of some value, one of a pair which had been given to her 20 years ago. Unable to recover the earring by other means, she placed a "lost" ad in the Press classified section. Shortly after the Press Shoppers' Guide was delivered to readers, she received a call from a woman who asked if she was the one who had lost the earring. Her caller, Mrs. C. J. Marlatt, 244 Esther Avenue, had read the lost ad, then remembered seeing her children playing with an unfamiliar earring.

Shortly afterward, Mrs. Marlatt's young son brought the lost earring to Mrs. Bergeron's home. "Thanks to Mrs. Marlatt and the Campbell Press," remarked Mrs. Bergeron.

P. O. Business Increases $2,336.52

An increase of $2,336.52 in Campbell Postoffice receipts for the first half of 1950 was reported this week by Postmaster Ira H. Grim. Total business for the first six months of this year amounted to $20,617.84, compared to $18,281.32 for the same period in 1949.

Effective the first of this month, the local postoffice was officially raised to a first class rating, having achieved the annual business volume of $40,000 required for that rating in 1949. Grim estimates that volume for 1950 may reach $45,000.

VFW Post 6305 Holds Busy Session At First Meeting

Concentration upon the current membership drive was emphasized at the meeting of the newly-organized Lt. Byron C. Lanphear Post 6305, VFW, held Friday evening in the Library building.

The membership committee stressed the fact that only 60 days remain in which membership may be accepted for the charter list. According to state records, the present roll should be doubled. Consequently, the drive was continued with renewed intensity.

Meeting dates were officially set at the combined meeting of the Post and Ladies Auxiliary. The two groups will meet on the first and third Fridays of the month in the Country Woman's Clubroom at 8:00 p.m.

Those present received the new post caps in preparation for the coming centennial parade in Mountain View, July 16. A marching unit composed of auxiliary and post members will be present. The caps are Navy blue and white, trimmed with gold lettering. All members are urged to contact Quartermaster Ralph Kallam to obtain a cap on or before July 16.

On the social agenda, a patio party was set for Saturday evening, July 22, at the home of Senior Vice-Commander Charles Chubb. According to the recreation committee, the "McCurdy Hot-Dog Stand" will be available plus music from the latest records.

C. A. Beardsley Participates In Dedication

Charles A. Beardsley, the only member of the first graduation class (1904) of Campbell high school and now an Oakland attorney, will make the presentation tomorrow at the dedication of Stanford University's new law school quarters.

Stanford Law School alumni from California and five other western states have gathered on the campus for the two-day dedication ceremonies.

The program began today with Lon L. Fuller, Harvard law professor and leading American authority in the field of jurisprudence, speaking at 3 p.m. in the main lecture hall of the new quarters on Palm Drive.

The five-story building, made possible by a gift of $250,000 by law school alumni, has been described as one of the finest physical plants of its kind in the country.

Court Approves Move To Allow Parker Land Sale

The Randolph E. Parker ranch at the corner of Prospect and Stelling Roads, Cupertino, probably will be sold to the highest bidder sometime in early August, and Mrs. Parker may recover an estimated $12,000 in unpaid alimony as a result of clearing away of legal difficulties last Thursday.

Superior Judge Byrd Salsman approved Mrs. Kathryn Parker's petition to permit County Clerk E. T. McGehee to receive distribution of the estate of Dr. Parker's mother, Mrs. Frances Parker, and to sell its principal asset, the 90-acre plus Parker Ranch here.

Dr. Parker, son of famed chain dental office operator Dr. Painless Parker, is in Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Parker's attorney, Robert Morgan of San Jose, said bids on the property will be asked when the Frances Parker estate in San Francisco distributes to the receiver, in this case, McGehee, that portion of her estate willed to her son. General practice, he said, is to hire a real estate agent to obtain one initial bid, then carry on bidding in court.

Dr. Painless Parker has consented to distribution to Receiver McGehee if his daughter-in-law will, in return, dismiss lawsuits against him and the Painless Parker Corporation.

According to Morgan, Dr. R. E. Parker has made no alimony or support payments to Mrs. Parker since their separation two years ago. They are parents of two minor children. However, Mrs. Parker has been able to obtain small sums occasionally from income from the estate. Recently it paid her $500 after she applied to the County Welfare Department for aid for her two children.

Should sale of the estate bring more than back alimony and legal costs, said Morgan, McGehee would hold the balance to pay Mrs. Parker's monthly alimony. Attorney for Dr. R. E. Parker is Earl Berger.

Safe Driving Campaign Set

September 1 has been set as the date for the launching of the county-wide safe driving campaign, Mel E. Hewins of Cupertino, member of the safety committee, revealed this week. Purpose of the drive will be to encourage regular use of arm signals in driving and to increase driving courtesy.

Statements By Interesting Californians

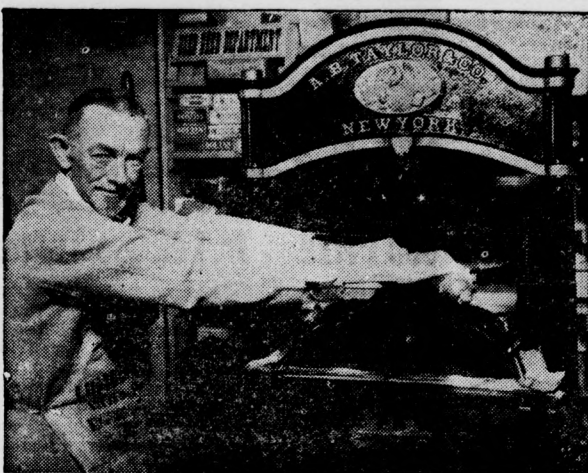

Bette Davis, Hollywood, on third divorce: "I'm not going to marry anyone—at least not right away."

Dr. Ralph Eckert, Sacramento: "Democracy is a middle-of-the-road philosophy because it is a compromise between totalitarianism and anarchy."

T. S. Petersen, S.F., oil company executive: "The most effective rein upon any company and its management is the public's right of decision to buy or not to buy."

Rev. George W. Barnes, L.A.: "Too many Christians today see Christ as merely a social reformer."

IT CAME 'ROUND THE HORN, (the printing press, not the man) and it still works. (Both do). Charles Palmer, of Fresno, is shown with his old Washington Hand Press, which is part of the "Early California printing plant" he will actually operate at the Centennial Exposition of California Journalism, to be held in Balboa Park, in the Exposition City of San Diego, Aug. 1 through Sept. 9.

Campbell Press Day Scheduled At Centennial Exposition Of Journalism

The fabulous growth of California, in little more than 100 years, from a wilderness to its present top-ranking position in the Union, will be graphically portrayed at the Centennial Exposition of California Journalism at San Diego, August 1 through September 9.

Co-sponsored by San Diego city and county and the California

Centennial Commission, the exposition, to be held in Balboa Park, will comprise a five-phase show. Built around the story of the development of the state's newspapers during the last century, the exposition will also feature the Library of Congress exhibit of California Treasures; an art exhibit of the works of California artists; an eight-day pageant; and a daily program of special events and features in the Little Theater. The three exhibits and the Little Theater will be in the Electric Building, and the pageant has been planned for Presidio Park.

Campbell Press day at the Centennial Exposition of California Journalism will be on Wednesday, August 23.

Under the direction of Herbert Kornfield, well-known engineer-designer, artists and craftsmen today are building backgrounds and scenic effects in the Electric Building. To provide suitable setting, the background will be divided between modern effects and those of the early days of California.

There will be a replica of an old-time village, against which papers of the Gold Rush Days and later eras will be displayed, and, to provide suitable backgrounds for the gigantic newspaper industry of California today, modern paneling, in flat planes, curves and angles, is being erected.

An old-time newspaper shop, complete with a century-old Washington hand-press, part of a collection owned by Charles Palmer of Fresno, will be set up and operated during the six weeks of the show. In contrast, a modern newsroom will be in operation, with teletypes, wire-photo equipment, and other present-day equipment in operation.

Mother and child are reported progressing satisfactorily.

Campbell Man Aids Officers

Denzel Barnes of Box 481 Walters Avenue, Campbell, gave a hand to San Jose law officers this week when he spotted a youngster attempting to snatch the purse of Mrs. Louis Pryor, 819 N. Second street, San Jose. Barnes, who was passing the intersection of Almaden Avenue and Santa Clara street, reportedly saw a 16-year-old youth run up behind Mrs. Pryor and attempt to grab her purse. Barnes followed the youth who was captured at Almaden and Notre Dame street. Police reported the boy running away from his Fresno home. The boy said he was hungry.

THE FRIENDLESS FIVE—The spark of brotherly love has filtered through our veins this week. In a mood of benevolence and unprecedented behavior we wish to salute the "Friendless Five", the quintet of umpires that work the Campbell Softball League. With a new flicker, "Kill the Umpire", playing the first run theaters throughout the country, the scourge of the "blind ones" should be complete.

The clan of arbiters that prevail at the local field, evoking the wrath of players and fans alike are Charles Smith, Rudy Goldin, Virgil Cochran, George Flood and Ray Jacobus. Unlike baseball fans up north who were touched with pity and showered gifts upon three ump of the PCL last week, we cannot let our emotions and pocketbooks run away, thus offering lucrative gifts. (As the financial status of the league can attest).

Instead, let us show them our gratitude by performing little friendly tasks of appreciation for services rendered. The next time we spy Messrs. Smith, Goldin, Cochran, Flood, or Jacobus standing on a street corner we can put our thoughts of understanding into action. Help the poor souls across the busy street. They will appreciate it no end and I'm sure that in their next game they will use their good eye to extreme advantage.

NEW LOOK FOR BUCS—With athletic activities at a minimum during the summer months, the athletic plant at Campbell high school is busily applying paint and new gear throughout the gym and lockers.

In the boys' gym new equipment shelves are being added. The walls and bleachers are being refinished and painted. The gym floor will be sanded and finished sometime in August. With this renovation movement ready for fall games, the local fans can look forward to better things to come.

With such improved environment, the basketball team can be expected to respond accordingly.

TALENTED TEACHER... Ed Curtis, manager of the Valley Merchants, local baseball team, is readily qualified to instruct his youngsters in the finer points of the game. In his youth, Curtis was a player of some repute. He played years of semi-pro and pro ball in the mid-west, especially Wisconsin and Minnesota.

His best season was with the Milwaukee Millers of the American Association in 1928. Playing second base for the brew boys, Curtis hit a most respectable .367. If he can instill some of that hitting lore into his kids, the Merchants can easily make a name for themselves in Northern California sandlot circles.

BY THE WAY... Jess Holt, one of the better ends to graduate from Campbell high, is headed for Stockton J.C., proving grounds for the College of Pacific. Holt was varsity end for two years. This past season he won All-SC-VAL conference honors. . . . Pete Young, stellar tackle on last year's Buc eleven, will try to make Coach Pappy Waldorf enjoy those cigars when he reports to the University of California this fall. Judging

N. C. Tennis Association Offers Clinic July 19 At Los Gatos Club

A tennis clinic, sponsored by the Wilson Sporting Goods Co., will be offered Wednesday, July 19, at the Los Gatos Tennis Club. Robert N. Graves, Campbell resident and president of the club, announced that all tennis enthusiasts are invited to the clinic. No fee is required.

An afternoon session, starting at 1:00 p.m., will be held for teenagers only. When asked the age limits, Graves replied the tennis hopeful has to be just big enough to hold the racket, otherwise no age boundary has been established.

The adults will be tutored in the finer points and fundamentals, in the evening with opening sessions starting at 8:30 p.m.

This clinic, under the auspices of the Northern California Tennis Association, has been touring the surrounding areas with an array of topnotch tennis instructors — star players in their own rank.

One of the instructors will be Mrs. Ethel Arnold of Sobey Lane, Campbell. Mrs. Arnold is a former top-ranking amateur of national standing. Norman Brooks, another player well-known in local tennis circles, has expressed his desire to be present and aid the hardcourt aspirants in any way.

About five instructors will be on hand. Each one will specialize in a given phase of the game. All shots, serves, and deliveries will be explained and exhibited by the tutors.

Graves emphasized the fact that the greener the player is, the more he will learn. No one, he said, should feel that he knows too little about the game and refuse to participate in the clinic.

from Pappy's tales of woe any form of talent shall be gratefully accepted. . . . Bob Pranca, letterman in football and baseball, is rumored to be heading for San Jose State, come the winter quarter. Pranca was first-string quarterback and held down a starting berth on the diamond nine.

Beware De Law . . . With the trout and salmon season in full swing, many Campbell fishermen are taking well-earned vacations to hit the cold streams of their favorite fishing spots. Approximately 100 fishing licenses were sold in Campbell hardware and sporting goods stores to local sportsmen in the past six weeks, excluding the numerous licenses sold in San Jose establishments.

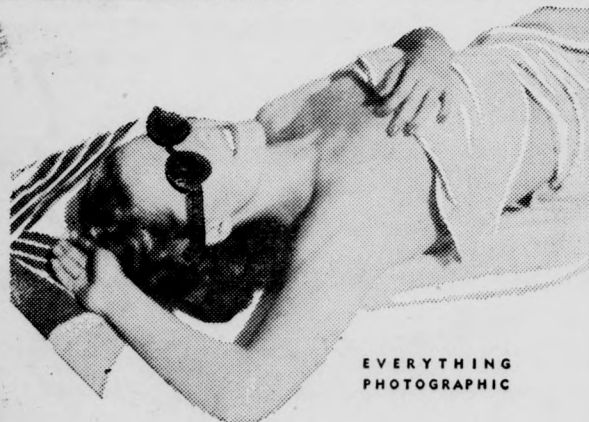

Thus it is quite evident that we have our share of fishing enthusiasts. Right now I wish to insert a bit of warning that is about as welcome as freezing weather in an orchard belt.

According to the Division of Fish and Game, approximately 400 fishermen were fined and/or imprisoned during the first three months of this year, not to mention the 1200 or more errant hunters reprimanded accordingly.

Anglers violated various provisions of the F&G Code relating to licenses, closed seasons, closed areas, and night fishing.

The combined fishing and hunting convictions for the 90-day period saw sportsmen sentenced to spend a total of 1689 days in jail, and pay fines aggregating $49,883. Lest we forget . . . A word to the wise is sufficient!

LOCAL SOFTBALL NEWS

Scoring 10 runs in a hectic second inning, the Bettencourt softball team walloped Campbell Hardware, 17 to 6, last week to win the first half championship of the "B" division of the Campbell Softball League.

Everything but the kitchen sink fell on the hardware as errors of omission and commission plus walks greatly augmented that second stanza rally.

Contrary to a loser's customary excuses, the vanquished had a plausible alibi. Their entire first-string infield failed to show for the game. One player was in San Luis Obispo on military maneuvers, another was enjoying a vacation and the remaining two had to work.

Buzzy Freitas and Dick Weitzel hit homers for the losers.

MONDAY—"A" LEAGUE

A second division club during the first half of play, Mac's Market, may prove to be the team to beat in the second half of the "A" league if their future play is typical of their Monday night exhibition.

With Dutch Johnson hurling a no-hitter, the market boys shut out the formidable Purple Knights, 5 to 0. Johnson struck out 18 men with the first 10 going down via the K route. Johnson interrupted his own string by walking the 11th and 12th batters. But he promptly found the strikeout rut again by fanning the following six hopefuls.

Of the three Knights who did hit the ball, only one was able to rap a ball out of the infield, and that a routine fly to the left fielder.

The Knight's Jackson pitched a respectable game, allowing but seven hits and only two earned runs. Three errors contributed three tallies to the foodmen cause.

MONDAY—"B" LEAGUE

Scoring six runs in the last inning, Netops started their second half of play successfully by defeating Moorpark, 8 to 4, in "B"

Extra $1000 Prize Goes To Winner Of Feature Race

One of the richest purses of the current racing season will be paid to the winner of the 20-lap hard-top stock-car main event tomorrow night at San Jose Speedway.

In addition to the regular prize money, a jackpot totaling $1000 (in silver) will be presented to one of the 15 starting drivers. This added gold mine was made possible by deducting $100 from the purses of the last 10 races.

To be eligible for the coveted coin, drivers must have participated in 50 percent of the races held this year at the Speedway.

The money will be paid the winner immediately following the race. The winner's car will be inspected for conformity to CSRA rules governing motor specifications.

According to General Manager Bob Barkhimer, the $1000 prize is more than 15 finishers in the Indianapolis 500-mile classic received this year.

On hand to compete in what promises to be extremely rough action are many local notables such as Ray Raineri, Al Gaetano, Dave Carter, and Rod Zanoline. Qualifying gets under way at 7 p.m. with the first competitive race starting at 8:30.

league competition.

The winners took an early lead in the second frame by pushing across two unearned tallies after two were out. The Moorpark ten retaliated with four runs in the third on three walks and two bingles. The score remained 4 to 2 until the last stanza when five hits coupled with five passes provided the margin of victory.

TUESDAY—"A" LEAGUE

In non-league play Tuesday evening, the Saratoga Merchants (A league) dropped a 6 to 2 tilt to the Monterey Road Merchants at the local softball diamond.

Jr. League Teams Play Saturday

Two teams of the Junior Softball League will display their wares for the first time in a non-league game tomorrow evening at the local softball diamond.

The game will precede a senior struggle between the Oddfellows and an unnamed opponent.

Jim Muir, Campbell Union high school physical director in charge of the juniors, announced that Gilpatrick's will face Royer's as the neophytes get their first taste of open competition.

The Jr. Oddfellows meet the Lou Acklin ten Wednesday evening in another youthful contest.

The recently-formed Junior League has, at the present writing, four teams in the field. Muir revealed that tentative plans show a team from the Burbank district joining the loop.

Western Gravel Ceases Local Play; Blames Poor Attendance, Field

They came—they played for a while—they left.

This briefly is the term of existence and swan song of the Western Gravel softball team, so far as Campbell fans are concerned.

It was announced Thursday that Western Gravel, one of the nation's better softball aggregations, will not play any more Wednesday night games at the local ball field.

The team was accepted into the San Jose Softball League this week.

Reasons for their departure are self-explanatory. One had to watch the team in action just once at the Elementary school diamond to discover the causes leading to termination of play.

Lack of interest and inept playing facilities were stated as the main reasons. Western Gravel, a recently independent team playing the best in the west, did not receive sufficient attendance support, so vitally needed, considering the expenses of paying transportation for the topnotch traveling teams.

If the response had been satisfactory, the Western Gravel squad could have secured home games with the outstanding softball tens on the coast, according to Art LeDeit, team spokesman.

Evidently this was no idle boast, as witnessed by the caliber of play in the past few years. Last year, Western Gravel won the Northern California State Championship. Enroute to the crown, they had to knock off such formidable teams as the Turlock All-Stars, Vallejo Bombers, and West Coast Industries, all district champs in their own right.

In all, Western Gravel won 25 games last season while dropping only three. In open competition they defeated the potent Pacific Grove All-Stars.

Four years ago, under the banner of Hollister Cowboys, they went back to Cleveland for the National Softball Tourney. They represented California and Nevada as 36 district and state champions, along with teams from Canada, Mexico and Cuba, met to decide top honors. Western Gravel (then the Cowboys) finished third. They relinquished top spots to the Fort Wayne Zollners, three-time champs, and the Chicago Merchants.

Incidentally, all the players of that crack Cowboy unit, with the exception of one, compose the present Western Gravel squad.

When asked the major faults of the local field that hastened their departure, LeDeit answered that primarily, the playing area itself was below par. Originally, Western Gravel Co. scraped the rocks off and deposited a layer of loam. But now, the loam has blown off from (Continued on next page)

VFW Tuesday night, 8 to 3.

The vets tallied seven times on three hits and five walks in the second inning. They were held well in check for the rest of the game as they could muster only two additional hits. But the damage was done as the hardwaremen could only pick up single markers in the first, fourth, and final frame.

Both teams collected five hits with the winners out-erding their opponents, two to one.

WEDNESDAY—"A" LEAGUE

Maderis Food Center played a non-league game Wednesday night at the local field and should have stood in bed. The Beechnut ten soundly slapped the foodsmen by the tune of 20 to 4.

Being sociable, the visitors scored only eight times in the first four innings, but warmed up to the task by tallying 12 times in the sixth and seventh frames. Five miscues afield by the Center plus six free passes made the chore that much easier. The Maderis men secured a total of four hits as they remained on even terms for three innings; the score being tied at two-all until a five-run explosion set off by four Beechnut hits.

Stubbornly, the locals came back with two counters of their own in the bottom half of the fourth, but that proved to be their final phase of resistance.

WEDNESDAY—"B" LEAGUE

The Oddfellows, who finished in third place in first half play, had a momentary scare thrown into them Wednesday by the Junior Chamber of Commerce before downing them, 17 to 5.

The men of civic good will, doormats of the "B" league, took off to a five-run lead in the initial canto, but from then on they became dormant in the best of ways, making only two hits and no runs. In the meantime, the Oddfellows started slowly, picking up a single run in the first, increased the tempo with four runs in the second, and climaxing the parade with seven tallies in the third.

To insure any sudden uprising, they scored five safety runs in the fourth. In all, the winners amassed 15 hits while the JC's gathered three.

THURSDAY—"A" and "B"

It was feast or famine in both divisions of the Campbell Softball league last night as football scores were chalked up by the winners with the defeated ones barely making the extra point.

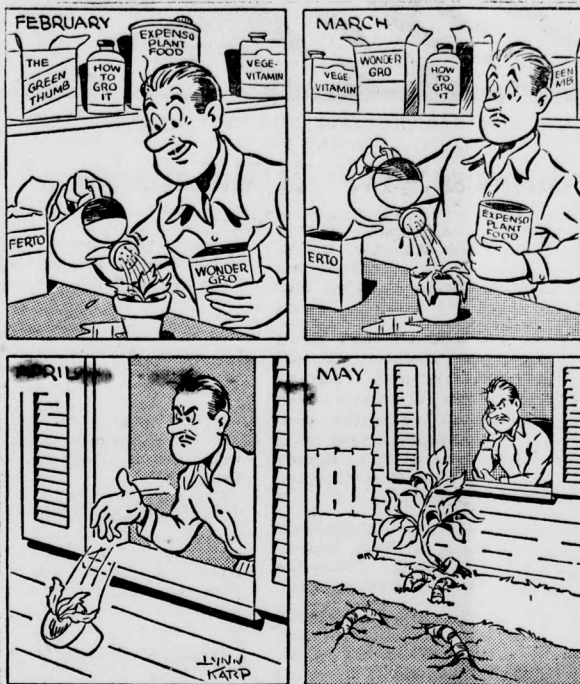

In "A" play, 5 Spot swamped the 7:30 Club, 18 to 1, with all the Spotters batters getting eagerly into the hitting feast. With such plate prowess, the 5 Spot crew can become a major threat in the second half. Especially with the showing of their new chucker, Chuck Hughes, from SJSC. He pitched part of last night's game and showed an assortment of stuff, although being a trifle wild.

Continuing in the hitting marathon, the "B" game saw the American Legion eke out a 20 to 2 win over Jeffers. The score is win-explanatory, with the legionnaires making the most of rather mediocre pitching.

More About Western Gravel

lack of proper watering, and the sand, with the aid of gusts of wind, has made playing conditions unbearable, or at least undesirable.

Thus far this season, Western Gravel has won 19 out of 22 games. In the year's opener they lost to the Hanford Kings, world champs, by the score of 4 to 2. Then the gravelmen defeated the strong Carroll Flowers of Watsonville twice. Both times found Sid Rock, regarded as one of the best softball chuckers in the nation, charged with the loss.

Despite the fact that Western Gravel will not play on Wednesday, it was revealed that if local response and enthusiasm were great enough, they would attempt to schedule local games for Saturday or Sunday play.

GIRL SCOUT News

Approximately 80 girls scouts from the Saratoga, Cupertino, and Moreland districts left yesterday for a six-day camp at the Bishop estate in Saratoga.

The outing, an annual affair, will include work units as the girls strive toward badges. On the recreational program, folk dancing and a swim day are scheduled. The entire stay at Bishop's will be augmented by several hikes and art-craft displays.

Co-directors of the group are Mrs. Mary Bailey and Mrs. Roland McIntyre of Saratoga.

The Brownies, the younger edition of the troop, spent a few days at the camp earlier last week.

In Santa Clara County, nine foxes were taken, plus eight skunks, five bobcats, four raccoons, four badgers, and one opossum.

Coyotes provided the top target in May, with 162 pelts turned in to the Bureau of Game Conservation. Other enemies of wildlife that were killed in great number included bobcats (116), foxes (103), and skunks (58).

County Needy Aid

62% Higher Than US Average

Santa Clara county's $70.59 aid per needy aged person during May, 1950, was 62 percent higher than the $43.69 national average payment during April, 1950 (latest nationwide data available), California Taxpayers' Association said today.

Aid was paid to 6,159 people who qualified as "needy aged" in the county during May, total paid amounting to $434,761 for the one month.

The $70.68 average aid paid needy aged people throughout California during May was 62 percent higher than the national average of $43.69 for April, the association found.

During May, 266,837 people in California got aid as needy aged, total aid paid during the month reaching $18,859,633. This is well under the 277,882 people getting $19,648,963 for February, 1950, the last month under the discredited Proposition No. 4.

Despite the tightening up since Prop. No. 4 was repealed, California's $18,859,633 aid to the aged bill for May was about 16 percent of the $120,930,268 total paid out throughout the United States for April and the 266,837 persons on the rolls in California during May were about 10 percent of the 2,768,093 total rolls throughout the country in April.
